SEMINAR FOR ONE WHO'D LIKE TO WORK IN JAPAN

Do you have any of the following questions?

I'd like to work in Japan. Then, what should I do? Where can I find a job? Are there any places where non-Japanese can work? I'm not so proficient in Japanese, but can I still work in Japan? If so, then one of our experienced advisors will give you helpful answers to these problems. Why don't we discuss about them together?

Date & Time : Monday, November 24, 2014. 10:30~12:30
Place : International Plaza, Sanda Public Community Center
Lecturer : Ms. Miwa Kubo
The Center for Support on Working Life – Harima Higashi,
Non profit organization WITH US

✕Ms. Kubo has been working as a member of an international organization affiliated with City of Akashi for 7 years. From this April she is supporting non-Japanese residents to find jobs at The Center for Support on Working Life in Harima Higashi.

Intended Audience : Anybody with a foreign background and working visa status, who is looking for jobs in Japan.

Application : Call, send a fax or email the International Plaza with your name, phone number, nationality and language you speak.
(On Mondays, Tuesdays and Saturdays our staff who speaks Chinese is in charge. This schedule is subject to change.)

Interpretation and childcare during the seminar are available. For more information in detail, please feel free to ask us.
